FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 11/10/2013

The Polish Mission, contributors to the PBS show “Genealogy Roadshow” is pleased to announce a “Return to Your Polish Roots Tour” to Krakow & Zakopane.

Today the Polish Mission, and the Polonia Americana Research Institute (PARI), the Polish Mission’s genealogy center, announced a new genealogy tour to Poland. This engaging tour will allow travelers to focus on the many historical and unique sites found in the Krakow and Zakopane area. In addition, one day will be devoted to visiting the National Archives. Here, an opportunity for personal research with assistance from local researchers will be available. Also, a day has been set aside for travelers to visit their near village or town where they will have the opportunity to walk in their ancestors’ footsteps, visit family churches, see local sites and perhaps meet with relatives.

Highlights of the trip include visits and tours, led by local tour guides, to: the Wieliczka Salt Mine, Warwal [sic] (the Royal Castle), Krakow Old Town, Auschwitz and Birkenau, Wadowice (former home to Pope John Paul II), the Museum-Schindler Factory, the Underground World of Krakow’s Past, the former Jewish District—Kazimierz, and much more. While most of the time will be spent in Krakow, an overnight of the beautiful artist town Zakopane has been planned with special events included.

The tour will be fully escorted by: Ceil Wendt Jensen, Certified Genealogist and Director, Polonia Americana Research Institute (PARI), the Polish Mission’s genealogy center; Carole Schaffer, Founder and CEO of the Global Alliance of Travelers Seeking European Ancestry (GATSEA); and local, English-speaking tour escort.

 LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ***

Subject: Polskie Koledy po raz pierwszy w j. angielskim [Polish Carols in English for the first time]

Editor—This note was sent to our Webmaster, Don Szumowski. It doesn’t really have anything to do with genealogy, per se. But it does have to do with Polish culture, and we’re approaching the time of year when our readers may really enjoy the songs.

My name is Ewa Chrostek and I am a member of Polish Parish, Our Lady of Bright Mount in Los Angeles, where Fr. Rafał Dygula is the Pastor. I am a student but in my spare time I am a singer. Under the stage name Ewa Angeli, I record and release my own albums.

I recorded and released for the first time in history the Polish Christmas Carols in English. The album titled “In Night’s Still Silence” (Wśród Nocnej Ciszy) was very well received among Polish community here in Los Angeles. Following the advice from Fr. Dygula, I wish to make this CD available to all Polish communities throughout the U.S. and in other countries.

People were buying this CD not only for their own use but also as a gift for their American friends (and friends from other countries) with a great desire to share our culture and the beauty of our Polish Christmas music.

Fr. Rafał Dygula wrote a beautiful letter with his recommendations for this Christmas album. The CD contains 12 the most beautiful Polish Christmas Carols and fragments of four of them could be listened to on my website at:

<http://www.ewaangeli.com/Video.htm>

The album and samples of all 12 carols are available on the Internet at <http://www.cdbaby.com/cd/ewaangeli2> as well as Amazon and iTunes.

I believe that this album may serve as a great tool to promote our Polish culture, but most of all it may help for many people to experience the great joy of Christmas. That’s why I will be very grateful for any help in promoting this album. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Ewa Angeli

Subject: Chicken Word Song

I am on the email list of the Gen Dobry! newsletter. I’m not sure of all the protocol and I apologize if I should not be sending you this inquiry. This search is not related to any family genealogy. It pertains to a song.
My aunt was in first grade in the early 1940s (at St. Florian in Hamtramck Michigan). The children wore homemade “chicken costumes” complete with feathers. They were pecking around the stage and singing this song. This is all my aunt can remember and the other former children in her class remember even less. Any help you can offer to direct me to a forum to search is much appreciated. Felician Sisters taught at St. Florian School, but those I inquired with don’t remember the song.

These are the words remembered: “Cheep cheep cheep kureczki bardzo was prosze czubate koguty.”

Thank you for your assistance and time.

Dianne

Editor—I must admit, I’ve come up empty looking for anything on this. Perhaps some of our readers can help? If so, write me at <wfh@langline.com> and I’ll pass your note along to Dianne.

 A LITTLE-KNOWN GOVERNMENT GENEALOGY SERVICE ***

by Richard W. Eastman

Editor—The following article is from Eastman’s Online Genealogy Newsletter and is copyright 2013 by Richard W. Eastman. It is re-published here with the permission of the author. Information about the newsletter is available at <http://www.eogn.com>.

A little-known program of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) provides genealogy information that may be difficult or impossible to obtain elsewhere. The records include naturalization files, visa applications, and citizenship tests, and may reveal family secrets and mysteries. In addition to relatives, historians or researchers can also request files.
Under the USCIS Genealogy Program, which started in 2008, requests are usually completed within 90 days. The government will run a search of the name, as long as the person is deceased. If there are records available, the government charges additional fees for the files. The fee for a record copy from microfilm identified as (M) is $20 per request. The fee for a copy of a hard copy file identified as (HC) is $35 per request. More information about the fees associated with each file series may be found at http://www.uscis.gov/history-and-genealogy/genealogy/historical-records-series-available-genealogy-program.

The documents typically include immigration information, often (but not always) including exact hometowns in their ancestors’ native countries. The files often have information on brothers, sisters, aunts and uncles. Many times it is useful to obtain the records of your uncles, aunts, and cousins who also immigrated from “the old country.”

If the immigrant applied for American citizenship, the details are also included in these files. For anyone of Japanese, German, or Italian origin who lived in the United States during World War II, the documents often include FBI reports about the person’s activities, including friends, family, and political activities.

For more information about the program, check out <http://www.uscis.gov/genealogy>.

Do you have comments, questions, or corrections to this article? If so, please post your words at the end of this article in the Standard Edition newsletter’s web site where everyone can benefit from your words. You might also want to read comments posted by others there.

 UPDATE FROM GENTTEAM.AT ***

by Felix Gundacker

Editor—Here’s the latest information on new features at this resource for Austria-Hungary.

Vienna, November 3rd, 2013

New at GenTeam:

1) Catholic Indices from Upper- and Lower Austria, Bohemia, Austrian Silesia, Styria, Hungary and Vienna – about 130,000 new records
2) Catholic baptisms in Vienna: about 127,000 new entries
3) New database: owners of Houses in Salzburg in 1829—about 45,000 entries
4) Jewish Community Vienna: about 180,000 new records available. Marriages and deaths 1913-1938, birth up to 1913
Dear Colleagues,

on my own account:

This new online database gives the 21,200 registered users immediately more than 8 million entries at their disposal. I would like to express here my heart-felt thanks to all those individuals who have furnished GenTeam in the last nearly 4 years with vital information, all those who work on long-term projects, but also those who work behind the scene to ensure that GenTeam functions properly and continuously is able to expand.

All Databases at GenTeam can be called up free of charge. GenTeam is a non-profit organization, and there is no membership fee connected to this organization. GenTeam is an association of historians and genealogists who work independently or as a team on databases and furnish this data free of charge to all researches.

GenList - Mailing List—connecting genealogists

Your genealogical questions like search of persons, search of locations, help in reading records, can be answer by more than 1,400 members of this list. It’s bilingual (English and German) and moderated. At the end of each email, three translators are listed.

<http://www.genlist.at/index-en.html>

1) New Indices from Roman Catholic Matrices

Approximately 130,000 entries of Indices were added from Catholic registries in Vienna, Upper and Lower Austria, Styria, Bohemia, Austrian Silesia and Hungary. The researcher has herewith approximately 2 Million records and about 2.8 million names at his disposal in this very important database. This index is not a simple index, for in addition to names you will find in some of these databases information concerning parents, addresses, profession and age. Naturally, the search in these fields will be by surname. You will find the parishes along with the time frame at GenTeam under Help.

Vienna:
   St. Marx

Lower Austria:
   Artstetten, Dietmanns bei Gmünd, Göllersdorf, Großgöttfritz, Harmanenschlag, Heidenreichstein, Heinrichs bei Weitra, Kirchberg am Walde, Maria Taferl, Melk, Oberkirchen, Oberdorf an der Melk, Ottenschlag, Sallingstadt, Säusenstein, Sindelburg, Wolkersdorf, Wurmlauf, Zwettl.

Upper Austria:
   Maria Neustift
Styria:
   St. Marein

St. Oswald-Moderbrugg

Bohemia:
   Nabsel/Bzi

Austrian Silesia:
   Braunsdorf/Brumovice

Hungary:
   Tevel

I would like to express my appreciation to Ursula Baldemaier, Franz Berger, Dr. Karl-Heinz Breitenbach, Mag. Fritz Eichler, Martina Gelbmann, Johann Hochstöger, Silvia Klose, Adolf Leutgeb, Marta Melchart, Diana Menschig, Franz Schübl, Franz Schönweiler, Franz Spevacek and HR DI Leopold Streinn for their tireless and valuable collaboration.

2) Baptismal Index in Vienna between 1585 und 1900—Already approximately 341,000 records are online

Approximately 127,000 entries were added from the parishes Unsere Liebe Frauen zu den Schotten, Rossau, Spital in der Rossau, St. Michael, Altlerchenfeld, St. Marx, St. Josef Margareten and St. Othmar (Weiβgärber).

At this point I would like to express my special thanks to Marta Melchart, Gerda Smodej, Judith Starke, HD DI Leopold Streinn and Walter Thurner.

During the 19th century, approximately 3.5 million people migrated from countries in the Hapsburg Monarchy (and beyond) to Vienna. By 1910 Vienna’s population had grown to 2.1 million. At that time Vienna was the sixth largest city in the world. Almost all families in the monarchy had family connections to Vienna.

Unfortunately, Vienna still has no central birth index, besides the Jewish Birth (and marriage and death) Index, which can already be found at <http://www.GenTeam.at>.

Therefore, GenTeam intends to produce a general index for all Vienna baptisms, and I invite you all to help along with this fascinating project. You will not require to travel or visit parishes; the indices can be furnished in digital form. Some indices are typed, some are in beautiful handwriting and some are in not so beautiful handwriting; I am sure every interested volunteer can find a part to help.

3) New database: owners of houses in Salzburg in 1829—about 45,000 entries
All house owners of the county of Salzburg of 1829 are listed with Last Name, First Name, Vulgo Name, location and house number and community.

-- at GenTeam, you also find this listing of all house owners of Lower Austria (including Vienna) in 1817.

4) Jewish Community Vienna: about 180,000 new records available

Because of the new Personenstandsgesetz (law of registry of births, marriages and deaths) of Austria GenTeam makes available the index of all marriages and deaths between 1826 and 1938 as well as of the births between 1826 and 1913.

Laurence Krupnak, owner of the Yahoo GaliciaPoland-Ukraine Group, got sick and tired of dealing with the headaches caused by Yahoo’s switch to the Neo interface. As a result, the Galicia list more or less died. But Laurence found that the French Yahoo retains the old system, so he is closing down the original group and reforming the group at the above URL. The instructions are in French, but they’re not terribly difficult. Rejoindre ce groupe means “Join this group,” and the e-mail address to subscribe is <galicia_province_of_austria-subscribe@yahoogroups.fr>; those are the main things you need to know. The Galicia group has always attracted a number of knowledgeable people and has been quite lively; so it’s good to see Laurence found a way to keep it alive.

Dick Eastman wrote of the FamilySearch free lookup service for the November 4 issue of Eastman’s Online Genealogy Newsletter [EOGN], saying “This must be the best-kept secret in genealogy!” He explained, “If you can specify a book and page number, or a specific image on a reel of microfilm, the personnel at the Family History Library will gladly look at that page or image and (in most cases) scan the entire page and email it to you for free.” For more information, read the article at the above URL.

Debbie Greenlee gave this URL in a note to the Poland-Roots group, explaining that this is the URL for a new museum in Gdynia, Poland that will tell the story of Poles who left their homeland for foreign ports, including the U.S., Great Britain, Canada, France, Australia and more.” She added that the pages are in English.
Some folks online have been having trouble finding the Poznań Project at its new site. This is too valuable a site to lose, so we wanted to repeat the URL for all who are looking for it.

Klaus Riecken shared this link with members of the Posen-L mailing list. For those who read German, this link is a review of a book by Sewerin Gawlitta, Zwischen Einladung und Ausweisung: Deutsche bäuerliche Siedler im Königreich Polen 1815-1915 [Between Invitation and Expulsion: German Rural Settlers in the Kingdom of Poland, 1815–1915], ISBN 9783879693535, Marburg: Herder-Institut 2009. The Google Translate version does a reasonably good job of turning the German into readable English. The book itself appears to be available at several major university libraries.

This is the URL for the Kindle edition of General Edward Rowny’s book Smokey Joe and the General.

This is a link to an article in Cosmopolitan Review by Lynn Ludlow and Maureen Mroczek Morris. It comes from a forthcoming book by Lynn and Maureen. The diva of the title is the famed Polish actress Helena Modjeska [Modrzejewska]; “the tosspot is Captain R. Korwin Piotrowski, a valorous captain in the November Uprising of 1830-31 in Poland and, as a leader in the exile community in San Francisco, a hard-drinking patriot noted for his girth – and mirth.”

On the PGS-Michigan Facebook page, Valerie Warunek posted this link, which gives a list of Polish genealogical societies in Poland. As someone involved in this field since the mid-1980s, I am amazed when I look over this list. I remember when such societies in Poland were far and few between!

Valerie also posted this link, to an index of issues of PGS-MI’s fine journal, The Polish Eaglet.

Valerie also posted this link, to “Polish Cemeteries in Africa”! Fascinating reading—and if you click on “Krótki zarys historyczny” (Short Historical Sketch), you get more information.
What’s more, Google Translate does a respectable job turning it into English; it’s not great English, but you can get the sense of what’s said.

<http://pgsma.org/surname-project--lista-nazwisk.html>

Valerie admired this link, which allows you to download the Surname List of the PGS-Massachusetts.
